

Falls Church Concert Band Logo

I submitted these designs in response to an open request from the band soliciting logo ideas. All entries were located online, and the band members voted for their favorite. My submission was the hands-down winner, with several other of my entries also receiving votes. Numerous band members commented that the simpleness of all of the designs was very appealing.

